DINNER PLANS—Kieran Brennan, Bernard Dougan and Dick Olson of the Nativity Holy Name Society check menu details in preparation for the society's family dinner April 24.

Holy Name Society Plans Parish Dinner

A detailed report on the preparations being made to serve an anticipated crowd of 1,000 persons at the semi-annual Nativity parish dinner scheduled Sunday April 24, was delivered by Frank Kristufek, chairman, at a recent meeting this week of the sponsoring Holy Name Society.

Kristufek revealed that Kieran Brennan, chairman of the procurement committee, has placed orders for supplies substantially in excess of those ordered for last November's attendance of 720 people.

Proceeds of the dinners are being used to purchase and maintain the life-size nativity scene displayed on the grounds of Nativity church during the Christmas season.

Sale of tickets for the dinner, under the direction of John McVey, started this week. Reservations may be made by calling McVey, FA 8-2568, Kristufek, FA 8-7187, or Joseph Platt, FA 8-6746.

Other committee members are Bob Klesges, Jack Redding, Dick Olson, Steven Montez, Bernard Dougan, Fred Voeste and Dennis Owens.

Williams Fredericks, president of the organization, announced during the meeting that the name of the group would be changed to the Nativity Men's club. The leader of the church club also reported that a parish picnic is being planned for June, and that a scholarship will be awarded by the club to a Nativity school graduate.

Episcopals Plan Easter Services

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., will hold Holy Communion and prayers for the sick of the parish at 6:30 a.m. today and tomorrow.

Other Maundy Thursday services will be a study prayer group at 10:15 a.m. followed by Holy Communion at 11 a.m. A commemorative service of the Last Supper will take place at 7 p.m.

The Good Friday Service of the Watch will be held from noon to 3 p.m.

Saturday an Easter-egg hunt is planned for the nursery and kindergarten group from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

An Easter sunrise communion service will be held at 5:15 a.m. followed by the church's annual sunrise breakfast. The Young People's Fellowship will be host.

Holy Communion will be held again at 7 a.m. and Choral Eucharist at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. The Rev. Hugh R. Percey will give the Easter message. Selections from the choir will include Mozart's "Gloria in Excelsis."

Easter Masses Scheduled by St. James

St. James Catholic Church, 100 N. Broadway, will celebrate Easter masses every hour from 6 a.m. to 9 a.m. and from 10:15 a.m. to 12:15 a.m.

The church school will meet every hour from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Confessions will be held on Holy Saturday from 10 a.m. to 12 a.m.; 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.; and 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Easter vigil services will take place at 10:30 p.m. and midnight, Saturday.

Good Friday confessions will be held from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. Mass and Calvary Devotions will be from noon to 3 p.m. The Way of the Cross service will be at 7:30 p.m.

Eternal Living Is Easter Topic at Community

"Dying Turned into Eternal Living" will be the Rev. William Schatz's Easter topic at sunrise service at Seaside Community Church, 22902 Ocean Ave.

The choir will be under direction of Mrs. C. L. Martin, Mrs. William Parker is organist.

Following the service, the Churchmen's Fellowship will serve a family breakfast in the fellowship room. Ernest Dungey is chairman.

Morning worship and Holy Communion will take place at 10:45 a.m.

Pathfinder Club Is Honored by Adventist Council

The 49-member Pathfinder Club of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia, has been named an Honor-youth organization by the Southern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

William Henry, associate Southern California youth activities director, said the Pathfinder Club is being honored by church headquarters "because members have demonstrated honor rank among the more than 50 church youth clubs in our conference."

Jack Moraine, 2233 239th St., is leader of the club. Seventh-day Adventist Pathfinder Clubs are similar to Scout organizations, but have a special religious emphasis.

Missionary Talk on Argentina Slated Sunday

The Rev. Leland Edwards, assistant director of foreign missions for the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel, and his wife will be guest speaker Sunday at 7:15 p.m. at the Torrance Gospel Church, Arlington Ave. and Sepulveda Blvd.

Rev. Edwards grew up on the mission field of Panama where his father served as missionary and supervisor of the Panamanian work for 25 years. When his father retired, Edwards took over the supervision of 127 churches in the Canal Zone.

Recently, he has spent two years in Chile and Argentina coordinating the work there. He will show color film on this field and will be dressed in the native costume of the Gauchos.

Easter Sunday the church will participate in the sunrise service at Roosevelt Memorial Park at 5:45 a.m. conducted by the Foursquare churches of the Centinella division. The Rev. James P. Lowen, is superintendent.

At the morning worship service at 10:45 a.m., Rev. Lowen will preach the Easter message. Easter music at all services is under direction of Ruth White.

Use classified. Call DA 5-1515.

MEN'S CLUB TO SPONSOR SUNRISE RITE

The Walteria Businessmen's Club will sponsor its seventh annual Easter sunrise service at 5:15 a.m. at the Scout Center, 25000 Madison Ave.

Participating in the event will be the Walteria Assembly of God Church, the Rev. O. W. Fish, pastor; the Walteria Community Methodist Church, the Rev. D. O. Beadles, pastor; and the Walteria First Baptist Church, the Rev. L. P. Hustad, pastor.

The combined choirs of the churches will provide the music.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served following the service.

Maundy Thursday Observed Tonight

St. Matthew Lutheran Church, 25000 S. Normandie Ave., will hold Communion service at 7:30 this evening in observation of Maundy Thursday.

Good Friday memorial services also will be held at 7:30 p.m.

Easter sunrise service will take place at 5:30 a.m. An Easter breakfast will follow.

The Easter festival service will be held at 11 a.m. Children's Easter service is at 9:30 a.m.
